

SAVE THE DATE

Celebrating the 75th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights at UNESCO

Paris, 11 December 2023, 10.00-12.00 CET

UNESCO, in partnership with the Permanent Representation of the European Union to UNESCO, warmly invites you to join the celebration of the 75th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, “the common standard of achievement for all people and all nations”, on 11 December 2023 (10.00-12.00 CET) in Room II of its Headquarters in Paris.

Through diverse perspectives, the event will reaffirm the importance of human rights in delivering on the UNESCO’s mandate in education, science, culture, communication and information. Through an emphasis on the two Global Priorities of the Organization – Africa and Gender Equality – the discussion will highlight connections, implementation challenges and opportunities for impactful action.

There will be simultaneous interpretation in English and French.

To attend, please register here.

We look forward to welcoming you to UNESCO!